

Nomination form for LASA election – Post of Vice President – Dr. S. Ramesh

Dr. S. Ramesh, is a Professor in the unit of Laboratory Animal Medicine, at TANUVAS Chennai. He has specialized in the area of Veterinary Pharmacology and Toxicology. He is serving as a faculty at the Tamil Nadu veterinary and Animal Sciences University for the past 24 years. He has specialized in the area of pharmacokinetics of antimicrobials in animals and birds. For the past six years he has been organizing the Certificate Course in Laboratory Animal Sciences. This course has been accredited by FELASA since 2015 and has the unique distinction of being the only course accredited outside Europe. This course has created a huge impact and is benefiting scientists from Industry and academia. Dr. S. Ramesh continues to serve as an expert for teaching and imparting hands on training in the area of laboratory animal sciences in various institutes. He is a co-investigator in the DBT funded project on Health monitoring of laboratory animals, operated at TANUVAS in collaboration with IISc, Bengaluru. He serves as a nominee and expert in many IAECs in and around Chennai. He has also organized the first Regional Conference and Workshop for the Nominees of CPCSEA at Chennai in July 2018.